

*Karen Levin
Professor, Social Science
Leesburg Campus*

“A good book takes us far or near, through grand and glorious or Spartan prose, to the familiar or the unexpected—always an inquiry into some dimension of the human experience.”

Ms. Levin’s office is in the Lecture Hall building on the Leesburg Campus, room 5.

*Karen Levin's
Favorite
Books*

- Prodigal Summer by Barbara Kingsolver
- The History of Love by Nicole Kraus
- Last Report on Miracles at Little No Horse by Louise Erdrich
- Joy Luck Club by Amy Tan
- Anil’s Ghost by Michael Ondaatje
- Amazing Adventures of Kavalier and Clay by Michael Chabon
- Love in the Time of Cholera by Gabriel Garcia Marquez